

1 Corinthians 13:1 Survey

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 1 Corinthians 13:1 (ESV)

Developed as a gospel-sharing tool to be used when “fire & brimstone street preachers” are doing their thing.

Introduce yourself: “Hello, I am (your name) with (name of campus ministry) and we are taking a survey to understand how students feel about this type of speech. Would you have a few minutes that I could ask you some questions?”

Their Name: _____

Year: Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior Grad Student

What is your first reaction to this type of speech?

Do you have more of a problem with what they are saying or how they are saying it? Why?

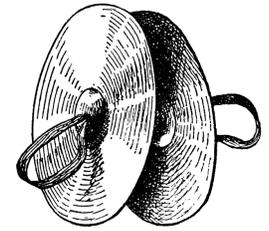

If you were to try to communicate a similar message, how would you do it differently?

The Bible says in 1 Corinthians that if a person speaks truth but does so without love, they are only making noise like clanging cymbals together. Do you think this person is speaking out of love? Why or why not?

The message of the Bible is not about condemnation but about love and hope. Would you like to hear that story?
If they say NO, respond: “Thank you for your time today!”
If they say YES, respond by sharing your faith story and the gospel.

1 Corinthians 13:1 Survey

If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal. 1 Corinthians 13:1 (ESV)

Developed as a gospel-sharing tool to be used when “fire & brimstone street preachers” are doing their thing.

Introduce yourself: “Hello, I am (your name) with (name of campus ministry) and we are taking a survey to understand how students feel about this type of speech. Would you have a few minutes that I could ask you some questions?”

Their Name: _____

Year: Freshman Sophomore Junior Senior Grad Student

What is your first reaction to this type of speech?

Do you have more of a problem with what they are saying or how they are saying it? Why?

If you were to try to communicate a similar message, how would you do it differently?

The Bible says in 1 Corinthians that if a person speaks truth but does so without love, they are only making noise like clanging cymbals together. Do you think this person is speaking out of love? Why or why not?

The message of the Bible is not about condemnation but about love and hope. Would you like to hear that story?
If they say NO, respond: “Thank you for your time today!”
If they say YES, respond by sharing your faith story and the gospel.